

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter

One	History
Two	Promoters
Three	Formation
Four	Internal Affairs
Five	Directors
Six	Officers & Agents
Seven	Shareholders
Eight	Shareholder Suits
Nine	Officer & Director Liability to Third Parties
Ten	Shareholder Liability to Third Parties
Eleven	Corporation's Liability to Third Parties
Twelve	Merger, Sale of All Assets & Dissolution

CHAPTER ONE – HISTORY

- 1.01 English Corporate Law
- 1.02 United States & Oregon Corporate Law
 - A. Early statutes
 - B. Constitutional prohibitions against incorporation by special act
 - C. Early corporation statutes were restrictive
 - D. The first modern statutes
 - E. Model Acts
 - F. Oregon's Business Corporation Acts
 - G. Close Corporation Supplement

CHAPTER TWO – PROMOTERS

- 2.01 Generally
 - A. Term defined
 - B. Incorporators distinguished
 - C. Multiple promoters
 - D. Modern trend
- 2.02 Fiduciary Duty
 - A. Disclosure duty
 - B. Transactions between promoter and corporation
 - C. Secret profits
 - D. Multiple promoters
- 2.03 Breach of Duty
 - A. Claims against promoter are usually claims of corporation, not shareholders
 - B. Exception – shareholder claims against promoter
 - C. Remedy
- 2.04 Promoter Compensation
- 2.05 Liability of Promoter to Third Parties
 - A. General rules of agency apply
 - B. Exception – third party agrees to look only to corporation
 - C. Promoter remains liable even if corporation assumes contract
 - D. Miscellaneous

- 2.06 Promoter Liability for Acts of Defective Corporations
- 2.07 Watered Stock

CHAPTER THREE – FORMATION

- 3.01 Generally
- 3.02 Incorporator
 - A. Qualifications
 - B. Duties
- 3.03 Organizational Meeting
- 3.04 De Facto Corporations & Corporations by Estoppel
 - A. Overview
 - B. De facto corporations
 - C. Corporations by estoppel
- 3.05 Articles of Incorporation
 - A. History
 - B. Corporate purpose
 - C. Contents of articles of incorporation: mandatory provisions
 - D. Contents of articles of incorporation: optional provisions
 - E. Filing Requirements
- 3.06 Constitutional Limits on Statutory Changes
- 3.07 Amendment to Articles of Incorporation
 - A. Old rule – unanimous consent
 - B. New rule – majority vote & fairness
 - C. Current law – majority rule & fairness
 - D. Mechanics
- 3.08 Bylaws
 - A. Content of bylaws – mandatory provisions
 - B. Content of bylaws – recommended provisions
 - C. Emergency bylaws
 - D. Amendment
- 3.09 Par Value
- 3.10 Stock Certificates
 - A. Shareholder has rights even if certificate not delivered
 - B. Uncertificated shares
 - C. Form and content of the certificate
 - D. Classes or series
 - E. Treasury shares
 - F. Miscellaneous
- 3.11 Principal Office
- 3.12 Corporate Seal
- 3.13 Classes or Series of Shares
- 3.14 Name
 - A. Reserving a name
 - B. Assumed business name
 - C. Name must be distinguishable
 - D. Unfair competition & unfair trade practices
 - E. Foreign corporations
 - F. Changing corporate name

CHAPTER FOUR – INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- 4.01 Registered Agents
- 4.02 Dividends & Other Distributions
 - A. Definition
 - B. Power to declare
 - C. Right of shareholders to force declaration of a distribution
 - D. Shareholder rights after dividend declared
 - E. Dividends on preferred shares
 - F. When can board declare a distribution: early tests
 - G. Solvency test
 - H. Oregon has adopted the solvency test
 - I. Delayed distributions
 - J. Liability for illegal distributions
- 4.03 Share/Stock Dividends
 - A. Current rule
 - B. Old rule
 - C. Share splits
- 4.04 Limited Liability & Indemnity of Officers & Directors
 - A. Limited liability
 - B. Permissive indemnity of directors & officers
 - C. Mandatory indemnity of directors & officers
 - D. Obligations of board in determination
- 4.05 Corporate Records
- 4.06 Shareholder Right to Inspect Records
 - A. Statutory right to inspect
 - B. Proper purpose
 - C. Burden of Proof
 - D. Court ordered inspection
- 4.07 Shareholder Agreements in Close Corporations
 - A. Statutory requirements
 - B. History

CHAPTER FIVE – DIRECTORS

- 5.01 Generally
 - A. Collective power, not individual power
 - B. Directors are not corporate agents
 - C. Manner of acting
- 5.02 Number & Qualification
 - A. Size of a board of directors
 - B. Qualifications
- 5.03 Election & Term
 - A. Election
 - B. Term
 - C. Vacancies
 - D. Staggered terms
 - E. Cumulative voting
 - F. Voting by class
 - G. Oath of office
- 5.04 Meetings
 - A. Organizational meeting
 - B. Regular meetings
 - C. Special meetings & notice
 - D. Written consent in lieu of meeting
 - E. Telephone meetings

- F. Location
- G. One director; one vote
- H. Director proxies
- I. Attendance by attorneys
- 5.05 Quorum
 - A. Generally
 - B. Changing the quorum requirement
 - C. Effect of vacancies
 - D. Variable range boards
 - E. Effect of conflicts of interest
- 5.06 Minutes of Meetings
- 5.07 Removal and Resignation
 - A. Removal, generally
 - B. Removal when cumulative or class voting used
 - C. Directors removing directors
 - D. Removal by court order
 - E. Failure to qualify
 - F. Resignation
- 5.08 Duties
 - A. Power reserved to the shareholders
 - B. Example – dividends
 - C. Example – technical amendments to articles of incorporation
 - D. Example – amending bylaws
 - E. Example – dissolution
 - F. Power to delegate duties
- 5.09 Compensation
- 5.10 Ultra Vires Acts
 - A. Statutory limitations on the power of the board
 - B. Acts contrary to provisions in articles or bylaws
 - C. Ultra vires – history
 - D. Ultra vires – today
- 5.11 Delegation of Duties – Agents & Committees
 - A. Delegation to agents
 - B. Delegation to board committees
- 5.12 Standard of Care
 - A. Standard at common law
 - B. Current statutory standard
 - C. Business judgement rule
 - D. Director liability may be limited
 - E. Liability for breach of standard of care
- 5.13 Business Judgment Rule
 - A. Generally
 - B. Example – Chicago Cubs
 - C. Two exceptions to business judgement rule
 - D. Uninformed decision – gross negligence exception
 - E. Bad faith – corrupt purpose exception
 - F. ALL’s codification of the business judgement rule
 - G. Business judgement rule – examples
 - H. Example – dividends
 - I. Example – consideration for stock

- J. Example – derivative lawsuits
- K. Example – employment issues in close corporation
- L. Example – takeovers
- M. Burden of proof
- 5.14 Directors as Fiduciaries
 - A. The rule today
 - B. History
 - C. Termination of the fiduciary duty
- 5.15 Fiduciary Duty to Individual Shareholders
- 5.16 Conflicts of Interest
 - A. Transactions between a director and the corporation are governed by director's fiduciary duty
 - B. Early case law
 - C. Fairness became most important factor
 - D. Current statute
 - E. Exception - loans to directors
- 5.17 Directors As Creditors
 - A. General rule - directors can become corporate creditors
 - B. Exception – transactions at or near insolvency
- 5.18 Usurping Corporate Opportunities
 - A. Transaction must be open
 - B. Corporation must knowingly reject opportunity
 - C. Other tests
 - D. Forced sales
 - E. Non-Competition Agreements
 - F. Preparations to compete
 - G. Statute of limitations

CHAPTER SIX – OFFICERS & AGENTS

- 6.01 Generally
 - A. Officers & agents distinguished – historical view
 - B. Today, there is less distinction between officers and other agents
 - C. Principles of agency apply to officer
 - D. Miscellaneous
- 6.02 Appointment
- 6.03 Term and Vacancies
 - A. Term
 - B. Removal
 - C. Resignation
- 6.04 Duties
- 6.05 Authority, Generally
- 6.06 Express Authority
- 6.07 Implied, Inherent & Apparent Authority
 - A. Implied/inherent authority
 - B. Implied/inherent authority of a general manager and other agents
 - C. Apparent authority

- 6.08 Ratification
 - A. Express ratification
 - B. Implied ratification
 - C. Ratification by acquiescence
 - D. Ratification by the shareholders
 - E. Relation back
- 6.09 Absence of Authority
 - A. Generally
 - B. Example – no inherent authority to execute notes
 - C. Discretionary authority
- 6.10 Standard of Care
- 6.11 Officers as Fiduciaries
- 6.12 Compensation
 - A. Early view
 - B. Modern view
 - C. Compensation if officer breaches fiduciary duty

CHAPTER SEVEN – SHAREHOLDERS

- 7.01 Generally
 - A. Shareholders are distinct from corporation
 - B. Directors – not shareholders – manage corporation
 - C. Shareholders are not agents of corporation
 - D. Shareholders' role may be expanded under ORS 60.265
- 7.02 Subscriptions & Other Contracts to Purchase Shares
 - A. Definitions
 - B. Subscriptions are contracts
 - C. Subscriber's rights and liabilities once subscription accepted
 - D. Qualifications to acquire shares
 - E. Miscellaneous
- 7.03 Limited Liability
- 7.04 Meetings
 - A. Annual meetings
 - B. Special meetings
 - C. Court-ordered meetings
 - D. Action without a meeting
 - E. Bylaws should contain rules for meetings
 - F. Notice
 - G. Telephone meetings
 - H. Record date
 - I. Shareholder list
 - J. Voting
 - K. Quorum
 - L. Conduct of meeting
 - M. Inspectors of elections
 - N. Minutes
- 7.05 Proxies
- 7.06 Dividends & Other Distributions
- 7.07 Preemptive Rights
 - A. Generally
 - B. How long open?

- C. Securities laws are applicable
- D. Exceptions to preemptive rights
- E. Court protection
- F. Additional sources
- 7.08 Voting Trusts
 - A. Defined
 - B. Old rule – voting trusts were disfavored
 - C. Current law – permitted
- 7.09 A Shareholder's Duty to the Corporation
- 7.10 Duty of Controlling Shareholders
 - A. Oregon cases
 - B. Other states
 - C. Exceptions
- 7.11 Duty of Shareholders in a Close Corporation
 - A. Close corporation defined
 - B. Close corporations are like partnerships
 - C. In a close corporation, all shareholders may owe a fiduciary duty
 - D. Majority shareholders in a close corporation owe a fiduciary duty
 - E. Business judgment rule
 - F. Pecuniary interest
 - G. Attorney liability
- 7.12 Duty of Non-controlling Shareholders
 - A. General rule – no fiduciary duty
 - B. Exception – a 50% shareholder
 - C. Exception – minority shareholder with veto power
- 7.13 Power of Court to Protect Minority Shareholders
 - A. Statutory authority to dissolve corporation
 - B. Courts are reluctant to intervene
 - C. Courts retain equitable powers
 - D. Miscellaneous

CHAPTER EIGHT – SHAREHOLDER SUITS

- 8.01 Shareholder Actions Against Corporation, Generally
- 8.02 Individual Claims
 - A. General rule – shareholders may not sue individually to enforce rights of corporation or of all shareholders, as a group
 - B. Individual contract claims against corporation
 - C. Claims when third party owes direct duty to both corporation and shareholder
 - D. Individual claims for declared dividends
 - E. Inspection of corporate records
 - F. Action seeking judicial dissolution
 - G. Action to compel stock transfer
- 8.03 Special Case – Closely Held Corporations
 - A. Oregon
 - B. Other states
- 8.04 Actions Arising Out of Oppression & Deadlock
 - A. Illegal, oppressive or fraudulent conduct
 - B. Deadlock
 - C. Court's power to dissolve is discretionary

- D. New statutory provisions for close corporations
- E. Court's equitable power to regulate corporate affairs
- 8.05 Derivative Lawsuits
 - A. Generally
 - B. Equitable action; extraordinary remedy
 - C. Who may bring suit: contemporaneous ownership of shares
 - D. Who may bring suit: representative plaintiff
 - E. Demand requirement
 - F. Recovery belongs to corporation – not plaintiff-shareholder
 - G. Settlement
 - H. Attorney fees
 - I. Oregon does not require plaintiff to post security
 - J. Equitable defenses
- 8.06 Dissenters' Rights
 - A. Steps required by statute
 - B. Fair value
 - C. Legal action; burden of proof
 - D. Attorney fees
 - E. Appraisal actions - exclusive remedy?

CHAPTER NINE – OFFICER & DIRECTOR LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 9.01 Generally
 - A. Shareholders
 - B. Officers
 - C. Directors
- 9.02 Acts Before Incorporation
- 9.03 Defective Corporations
- 9.04 Contract Liability
 - A. Directors usually not liable on corporate contracts
 - B. Agent for undisclosed principal is personally liable
 - C. Agent for partially-disclosed principal is personally liable
 - D. Corporation also liable
 - E. Agent are liable for unauthorized acts
 - F. Agents are liable for acts on behalf of a disclosed – but nonexistent – principal
 - G. Agents are liable if they personally guarantee contract
- 9.05 Tort Liability
 - A. Agents are liable for their own tortious acts
 - B. Officers & directors not liable for tortious acts of others
 - C. Specific torts
 - D. Civil & criminal actions brought by the state
 - E. Punitive damages
- 9.06 Interference with Contract & Civil Conspiracy
 - A. Interference with contract
 - B. Civil conspiracy

- 9.07 Improper Distributions
- 9.08 Liability of Officers & Directors to Creditors
- 9.09 False Prospectuses & Annual Reports
- 9.10 Statutory Liability

CHAPTER TEN – SHAREHOLDER LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 10.01 Generally
 - A. Successor corporation and agency distinguished
 - B. Miscellaneous
- 10.02 Piercing the Corporate Veil
 - A. Extraordinary remedy
 - B. Question of fact
 - C. Which state law applies?
 - D. Early cases
 - E. The Amfac test
 - F. Similar tests
 - G. Reverse piercing
- 10.03 Control
 - A. Who has actual control?
 - B. Early development
 - C. Control is not enough
 - D. Who has actual control?
- 10.04 Improper Conduct
- 10.05 Inadequate Capitalization
 - A. Generally
 - B. Other states
 - C. Funds considered as part of capitalization
 - D. When measured
 - E. How much is enough?
 - F. Miscellaneous
- 10.06 Milking
 - A. Generally
 - B. Related grounds for imposing liability
- 10.07 Commingling & Confusion
- 10.08 Violations of Statute
 - A. Generally
 - B. Licensing cases
- 10.09 Corporate Formalities
- 10.10 Proximate Cause
 - A. Generally
 - B. Recovery may be limited to sum milked
- 10.11 Unpaid Subscriptions
 - A. Generally
 - B. Failure to issue shares
 - C. Consideration permitted
 - D. Calls and assessments
 - E. Actions by the corporation
 - F. Actions by creditors
- 10.12 Distributions Upon Dissolution
 - A. Generally
 - B. Procedures for cutting off corporate debts after dissolution

CHAPTER ELEVEN – CORPORATION'S LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 11.01 Liability of Corporation for Acts of Promoter
- 11.02 Contract Liability
 - A. A corporation may enter into contracts
 - B. Ultra vires contracts
- 11.03 Tort Liability, Generally
 - A. Master/servant & principal/agent distinguished
 - B. Corporate liability for act of employee
 - C. Corporate liability for act of non-employee agent
 - D. Act of promoters
 - E. Punitive damages
- 11.04 Intentional Acts of Agents
- 11.05 Liability after the Acquisition of Assets
 - A. General rule – purchasing corporation not liable for selling corporation's debts
 - B. Five exceptions
 - C. Express agreement exception
 - D. De facto merger exception
 - E. Continuation exception
 - F. Fraud exception
 - G. Product line exception
 - H. Rights of a creditor where exception applies
 - I. Related issues – fraudulent conveyance & piercing the corporate veil
- 11.06 Liability after Mergers
- 11.07 Criminal Responsibility

CHAPTER TWELVE – MERGER, SALE OF ALL ASSETS & DISSOLUTION

- 12.01 Sale of Assets
- 12.02 Merger & Share Exchange
 - A. Procedures
 - B. Exception – merger of subsidiary into parent
 - C. Effect of merger
 - D. Consolidations
- 12.03 Dissolution, Generally
- 12.04 Voluntary Dissolution
 - A. Procedures
 - B. Effect of dissolution on conducting business
 - C. Creditors have first claim to assets upon dissolution
 - D. Cutting off known & unknown claims against a corporation
 - E. Distributions to shareholders
- 12.05 Administrative Dissolution
 - A. Grounds for administrative dissolution
 - B. Reinstatement
- 12.06 Judicial Dissolution
 - A. Shareholder initiated dissolutions
 - B. Court's power to dissolve is discretionary
 - C. Court's equitable power to regulate corporate affairs

- 12.07 Insolvent Corporations; Rights of Creditors; Trust Fund Theory
- A. Duty of directors
 - B. Rights of creditors
 - C. Trust fund theory
 - D. Oregon has never fully accepted
trust fund theory

Oregon Business Corporation Act Sections Cited

Index